Wouldn't you like to hire a junk removal company that goes beyond your city's franchised trash collectors? Do you own junk such as: old furniture, televisions, appliances, refrigerator, yard waste, construction junk, or just your personal junk that's been laying around for years? Why not hire a reliable, friendly, professional, affordable service to do all your work for you, while you sit back and watch.

JUNK BOYS is a locally owned & operated, full service junk removal company, serving the southern Ontario region. Our company philosophy is simple: "Provide excellent customer service at competitive rates to our clients, while being socially responsible to the environment". We recycle whenever possible & donate useable goods we collect to local charities & those less fortunate. Our uniformed crews are prompt, cheerful, motivated & professional, as well as prescreened, thoroughly background checked and highly trained, to meet the strict standards of JUNK BOYS. We at JUNK BOYS believe that we offer a better product, at a better price. Our fleet of shiny new trucks are on average 25% larger than our competition & our prices are very competitive. We invite you to experience our exceptional quality of service today.
